	18.10.2006 Shri Arun Shukla, counsel for the petitioner. Shri Sanjay S Agrawal, GA for the State. Heard on admission and on M.(W.)P.No.4359/2006. Petitioner was initially appointed as a driver on contingency paid basis. Vide order dated 20.03.2006/17.04.2006, he was given regular appointment and was posted as driver in the Office of Dy Director, Agriculture, Jashpur. State Government vide impugned order dated 01.07.2006 (Annexure P/1) has transferred the petitioner to Raigarh. Learned counsel for the petitioner failed to demonstrate how transfer policy has been violated and how Government, while passing the impugned order has committed malafide against the petitioner. So far seniority is concerned, it is being regularised by the Rules and regulations framed by the State Government. In view of the above, I am of the opinion that there is nothing which may call for any interference in the impugned order. Therefore, the petition is liable to be dismissed and is accordingly dismissed. In the light of above order, IA Nos.10189 & 10190/2006 stand disposed of. Sd/- V.K.Shrivastava Judge
